So I was just a wondering where all you fellow gamers live, what county/country do you guys rest your sleepy heads in?

For all who do not know, I live in Nottingham UK.

Nice one guys! Getting some good responses 🇬🇧

So Chifilly, I moved to nottingham 8 years ago to be with my gf who is now my wife! I used to live in Bedfordshire.

Now having recently moved from Stapleford, I am now living in Bramcote. How about you, where abouts in notts are ya?

Ps. Are you old enough to drink ? 🇬🇧

Nice snake, you mentioned about coming to the UK a lil while back on steam chat. With regards to a place to crash... theres a nice park just up the road! could have your pick of benches! Imfao! 🐍

Nah seriously I dont know mate... would need to know closer to the time to know what we are doing around then. Its a possibility though, providing the wife agree's haha!
