Posted by Scathe - 09 Jul 2011 10:11

Hi guys!

Just thought I would start this one off... Helping the new guy get to know ya'll a bit better.

So I was just a wondering where all you fellow gamers live, what county/country do you guys rest your sleepy heads in?

For all who do not know, I live in Nottingham UK.

Scathe 😊

Who knows... if you live close enough I might even buy you a beer! 😊
(providing your old enough)

Hehe nice guys!

Tunes - Nice place Portugal mate, I went on my honeymoon there. In fact thats where my profile pic and the spray I use in cs is from. The chapel of bone! 😊
Crazy but well cool...
took loads of pics!

Chifilly - Not liking alcohol... oh boy! Perhaps I could tempt you with some whiskey instead... If you say that tastes like anything similar to "monkey piss" I might have to hang you upside down by your toe nails! 😊

Voodoo - Thats cool mate, not too far away really! Please dont tell me you also think alcohol tastes like monkey piss? 😊 or I will be drinking alone at this rate! haha!

Alright Liquid, well... I have been at work since 6am this morning.... I have a netball tourny in which doesnt finish until 17.30 but I will have at least 2 hours clearing up after that before i can leave. I will get on steam as soon as I can when I get home matey.

Till then take it easy! catch you in a bit.

Chifilly - Whiskey is one of my fav drinks, whiskey and ginger ale I drink. Only tend to move onto beers when I run out of whiskey :p

Scathe man, coming to Portugal on a honeymoon shows good taste! Thats Bone Chappel in Évora, Alentejo, the hottest and also the coldest place here 😊

Yeah Tunes, we had an awesome time! We hired a villa out there for two weeks, had a private swimming pool too! Skinny dipping and plenty of "good times!" in that pool I can tell ya 😊

I thought the Bone chapel was wicked! made out of all the old monks remains which were burried there. Would like to go back some day!
