

Something bugging me (grammer nazi's get together)

Posted by liger - 09 Jul 2011 11:16

Never really cared about the correct spelling as long as i can read/comprehend it (in informal chat)

But this has started to bug me (prolly coz so many people have been pointing it out):

your/ur: means it belongs to you you are/u are/NOT "ur":: doesnt get more basic than that

What i really dont get is how the native speakers make a mistake in there?

&quot;correct&quot; way for &quot;you are/u are&quot; is ure 😊

Actually i see UK folk make these mistakes more than others, which is why i guess this topic -.-

I'm such a grammar nazi! I have to type/text in full sentences, and I always point out spelling and grammar, which is also why i'll point out you spelt grammar wrong in the topic title 😊
