

Erm.. whos doing this and why?

Posted by Scathe - 27 Oct 2011 10:06

Ok so last night, I was on and had been on 19 karma for quite some time. All of a sudden this morning ive just noticed it has been reduced to 15. 🙄

I would like to know who's behind it or at the very least know the reason why??? as the way I see it I have not actually done anything to offend anyone.

So I feel some justification is definately needed!!!

well, just gave you one... 🙄

I've looked in the logs, unfortunately, it ain't logged who gives what...

Thanks for that matey... 🙄

I think if people feel the need to reduce someones karma, there needs to be a function which identifies the individual and makes them have to give a valid reason for doing so. So the person it affects at least knows what they've done wrong! (if anything)

IMO people do it just for 'fun' and because they know it annoys people to be honest, there has been about 4-5 people complaining about their karma being attacked by trolls and if I'm fair, ive past caring about my karma, if everyone is going to be pissing about with it then it doesn't even show a fair representation of that person? so it is pretty useless if I'm honest.

takes dedication for a stupid kid troll to do it seeing as you can only change karma once every something hours, i remember it happening to liquid 🤔

le +1
