

Goodbye all :D

I've decided to drastically cut down on my gaming and how much time i spend on my laptop. Sadly that includes leaving twk. It's been a good year and a bit but when gaming starts to take over your social life i think it's time to stop. Tried just gaming less but that doesn't work so im going to go cold turkey. So this is goodbye all, its been great.

Well, he deleted his profile, so don't bother replying...

Makes me sad though, we've just lost a very valuable member.

But... now who's going to sexually harass people? Gimp was the best at that. 🙄

Oh, well - enjoy your life and have a good'n!
