Well, Goodbye Froggy, Sad to see both you and Gimp both going, I hope that you'll still come and chat every to everyone once in a while.

I know We've had a few petty arguments in the past week or so but I hope you realise I mean't no harm (I did try to explain to you and we did have a laugh in the past few days on CS:GO) so I guess you accepted my apology... Well, I guess this is goodbye :O.. enjoy the rest of your life.

You will be missed (with the arguments aside haha)
