What do you guys do after sex?

i like to cuddle with her i leave

i Bury her again

So the officer stops me and asks for my license and registration

After handing them to him , he asks who the car belongs to

I tell him it's my wifes

He asks if I have an authorization, because you have to have some proof that you're allowed to ride a car that's not yours

I go "Sir, I ride the OWNER of this car personally with no authorization, do you really expect me to have an authorization to ride her car ?"

Officer hands me back the papers in silence and salutes me
