

Aww, I love GuildWars :)

Haha, I was just in a really bad mood and then I was listening to the GuildWars soundtrack, how could I be in a bad mood after that? seriously? I've never heard music quite as beautiful, and yea, this might sound gay-ish but I don't give a Hoot-Nani.

Some of my favorites:

oh my god, I cannot express my feelings after hearing this music, I feel just simply amazing 😊 well i would think so because the music in both games were made by the same guy! (jeremy soule, He is best known for his work in The Elder Scrolls series, the Guild Wars series, and several other top-selling titles such as Total Annihilation, Neverwinter Nights, Dungeon Siege, and Harry Potter. (YAY wikipedia))

i think the first one most sounded like "Through the valleys" or "sunrise of flutes" a list of his songs are here, they are all very nice to listen to 🤔
