we were never married, thanks to that drunk slut voodoo 🙄 and yes of course u can have 4 wives, easily done. and half a wife? well its quite simple really. out of 28 wives u choose your least favourite. then, you choose your least favourite half of that wife and bam! u have half a wife. 🙄

You can also work hard at developing schizophrenia and get those extra personalities to develop into

"wives" that way you save cash when you buy gifts as its all for you. Downside is the cost of the doctors apointments and medicine.. The family christmas dinner might also be a bit dull or very confusing for your guests. 🙄
