

Present ideas anyone?

Posted by VooDoo - 04 Jul 2012 16:59

Well, my 18th birthday is coming up soon and my parents keep asking what presents I want, but I cant think of anything I really want, I know it sounds ungrateful but really, I can't think of anything.

So my question to you would be, can you guys think of anything that would be good for an 18th birthday present 🤔

Man, I bet you can afford a car, I've just bought one for 350£ with 16 years and running top notch.

Nope... Car = around £500, ontop of that.. TAX and MOT, and then ontop of that INSURANCE (around £6000 a year).

Without a job.. = not even an option 😊
