

Present ideas anyone?

Posted by VooDoo - 04 Jul 2012 16:59

Well, my 18th birthday is coming up soon and my parents keep asking what presents I want, but I cant think of anything I really want, I know it sounds ungrateful but really, I can't think of anything.

So my question to you would be, can you guys think of anything that would be good for an 18th birthday present 🍷

Hmm, it may not be £6000 now but when I checked earlier this year (I set my age to be over 18 just to see the price) it said £6000 a year on my brothers Fiat punto.. I think it'll have changed by now..
