

Finished HL2 Single player, again

HOLY CRAP, that game is huge.

After so many years i forgot how great it actually was. Strongly recommend to anyone who finished it when it came out to replay.

As it turns out i still hate the same places in the game 🤔

And to those who haven't played the HL series, shame on you for not being a part of the best game-serie in the world.

Its a good story and shooter. But my biggest irritation is the physics in the engine. Works great in a fiction set game like HL2 but it killed Day of Defeat. Corpses flying across areas is not in my liking. And the story doesnt make me want to continue to find out what happens. Its a 5/10 for me. I preferred HLs story more. I only bought HL2 to get the new DoD:S and it failed to deliver like the first so I abandon it. And it lay in its box until the day I joined here and decided to try CSS once more. 🤔
