worms are badass. Man i loved that game.

Also reminds me of worm Jim (name?). That game rocked as well. Surprising no more sequels

I can imagine some epic community battles on it!

Perhaps can get the cost down in a pack?

I remember the days when I played Worms and a real time version of it. L something..

Those where the days. Didnt it exist a 3D worms game aswell? Or did I dream of fighting fun matches in 3D? 🤔

There was but it wasnt worms, worms was me and Tunes playing it on the Commodore Amiga...

LOL

those were the days...

I've just had a look on the Steam Store and there is a 4 pack available for £53.97 so it works out about £13.50 per copy.

The game on it's own is currently 10% off at £16.19, going up to £17.99 after launch so with the 4 pack we're saving about a fiver - not too shabby.

I have one more Worms Reloaded game (I purchased a four pack) at £13.50. If you want it please give me a PM. It retails @ £17.99.
