

You banned me ... again):

Posted by KrimX - 18 Mar 2011 17:38

My STEAM ID - STEAM_0:0:20093793

Hi, you've banned me (for a second time) on your WCS server. I'm assuming this is because people keep accusing me of cheating (since im usually silent)?

Anyway, again, I'm not cheating.

My team -

www.pro-hl.com, Team eXtreme, name KX^

Anyone who knows anything about source will know the MOD teams do not cheat.

Up to you whether you unban me, but if you do choose to unban me, please dont just ban me again in a few weeks, its kind of annoying (:

I'm not attempting to put anyone down, was just pointing out that perhaps a player with server admin should have a good understanding of how the game works (And thats not to say whoever banned me doesnt, just that its a good thing to think about).

End of the day, it's just one server, i'm not hugely bothered by it. But it is one i play fairly regularly, so i'd prefer not to be banned

Alright, i checked a demo, which the map was office and to me it quickly became apparent that he was not hacking. He just has a good grasp on the mechanics of the game. All the shots i saw were far from hacking quality. He used sound to his advantage like any experienced player does. Not a crime. After spending some of my Saturday reviewing these demo's, i myself think, that he does not hack. I only watched the office demo as i do not have all these custom maps, so my opinion is only valid for the one demo i was able to watch but judging on that alone i say he should be unbanned.

There are 3 demos. 1 is blank, 1 is terrible play on helms deeps, and one is 2 rounds of office (1 eco). And all 3 are some of the worst play ive ever done lol? I thought you would have something a bit better :/

Well, maybe you aren't a cheater if others say so (and i'll unban if needed/asked) but if you say you are a regular, why are you only lvl 70+ since last reset. I also have never seen you before while im like online every day.

Lol because i dont jump races, since human alliance (evidently) is more than enough to be accused of cheating
