ded3 - I banned you because I have a screenshot of you a) admitted to cheating and B) being abusive.

I didn't ban you because you looked at a wall, the names you were calling other players were totally inappropriate and out of order.

Mr.Moo didn't do anything

I wasnt' there when this happened.

I'll tell you what, as there was no demo of you hacking, and you've made the effort to make a post, I will unban you, BUT, if I see you being abusive toward players again, and using totally inappropriate swearing and insults the ban will go back on.

Also, if anyone else is being abusive towards you, I will deal with them as we don't accept abuse towards anyone okay? 🍌

So just lay off the insults, and have fun okay?

edit:

You have been unbanned, please don't let us down 🙏

Ded3.

Firstly, I said I had an image of you admitting to using cheats, not an image of you using them.

Secondly, you were banned because of your abusiveness and racism towards players.

Finally, I understand being banned can be frustrating, but please try not to spam our forums with your frustration or anger as that will get you know where. A simple "I understand why you banned me, but I honestly wasn't cheating" would have done the job.

Now, please remember to think before you make another topic, spamming or flaming aren't appropriate, have fun on the server but remember, we don't want to see any more abuse from you.

Regards.
