Guys what do you think about this idea. Maybe admins should add some more maps and races and maybe some gun models make the game to change a bit 🙂 that would be fun

Well, yes it would be nice, but i guess its not possible jet.

I mean, as far as i know, pooky is the only one whos adding, creating, balancing and fixing races.

(sry if there are more ppl who do that... i just dont know much about how things work here at twk 🙂

So I guess there are way to less ppl, who are into this kind of scripting as pooky is.

But if u are able to make these things happen, which u think of... pooky would appreciate some help, cause there is a great amount of undone work and responsibility at twk wcs. 🙂

And about your idea of new maps, there is a section in this forum, where u can suggest new maps. Some responsible players will test them at the test server, to see if they fit.

Greetz, Boblike 🙂

I love the new maps idea but the rest seems bad, the download time with added models and things would just get irritating..

(I mean no offence in saying this only expressing my opinion)

Thanks

Ded3 I think Pooky our Solotrooper is busy enough with fixing and balancing the races and more like Boblike sayed. You got your link were to post maps and if there decend they'll be added. Also if you want hp?option=com_k...19803&Itemid=344

no reason to put it on the server but you can change your models yourself as you please
