This is shit.. Im beginning to hate valve.. just because they are being massive money raking tools, they are ruining it for the actual paying customers, now that TF2 Has gone free, tonnes of noob-fags and morons will begin to play it and it will turn from being "Team Fortress" to "Every man for themselves Fortress";

Seriously, valve is pissing me off 🙄

Yours Ragefully.

And I sodding bought it -___-

And I agree with VooDoo on that aspect, but I fail at the game and it pisses me off, so not an issue for me, lol

I completely disagree with you Voodoo, if anything encouraging more people to play a 3 year old game is a good thing. You can't say there isn't paying customers that act like twats on the internet. Personally i don't see what adverse difference this will cause

No, no... you miss-understood me

Since the game came out for free I've noticed like 40% of the servers I have connected to has had hackers using sniper aim bots, speed hacks and such, and they don't care about the consequences because if they get banned they just make a new steam account and then go back to hacking..

also this ruins it for the paying customers because they have wasted £20 on a game which is now came out for free... I just don't see why they brought it out for free? sure, more players = more money for them but also pisses the paying customers off. my family have bought the game for me, my 2 brothers and my dad, that's £80 that has just completely gone to waste..

anyway, the damage has been done and im fed-up with valve...

Thanks

--VooDoo--

PS: I don't play TF2 anymore due to all of the noobs and hackers..

Ahhh i see, i didnt think of it like that. That's terrible that hackers can do that, i hope they never do that with css 😊
