2000 soldiers/players in only one map!?!?!?!? I just wonder the size of the machine to handle such traffic.... and I'm not going into the math or code optimizations here, knowing what I know, its very hard to sustain such thing, unless using a farm to hold the thing (like 500 players on one single machine is kinda hard to get)

Well they would need to be to hold 2000 people in one battlefield. If the graphics were good, everyone's machines would cry and commit suicide
