

Hardest game ever, Realms of the Mad God.

So basicly the game came to steam like 3 days ago and it's hard as hell.

If you truely want to challenge yourself then reach level 20.

If someone wants to try it out:

store.steampowered.com/app/200210/

The game is addictive(To me if not others...) and it's fun but it is hard as hell 🤔

I played this game for a while a few months ago on it's website. It IS indeed pretty FRICKEN hard sometimes. It took me ages to get to necromancer 🤔

We sort of working on a guild for twk on the game...

There isn't anything to actually buy with your money that is worth it 🙄

I do have to agree, it is such a fun game, if only I were rich enough to get 1600 coins... 600 for a new character slot and 1000 for a guild 🙄

Guild = 1,000 fame

New character slot = 600 coins

fame = game money

coins = real money

if we get enough people to come and join us on the game, getting the fame wont be a problem 🙄

I got 1000 fame, i dont know how to call the guild.

Should the guild be called TWK or TWKgaming or anything else?
