

Auld Lang Aim - New year 1on1 cup

Posted by Gazza - 29 Dec 2008 14:00

After a bit of discussion it looks like the 1on1 Cup Will go ahead. (again) 😊

This tournament is only available To TWK members, and trusted members who are part of the community. A.k.a no randomers, the main aim of this is just purely for fun but there may be a small prize available chances are there will be.

As of the last tournament maps will be Aim maps as a change from the usual Bomb defusal maps we all know and adore. chances are the map list will be: Aim_map, Awp_India, Aim_Glockon, Aim_xeagle. These 4 maps kinda sum up the entire scene of source: AK, M4, Awp, Deagle and Dust2 xD it also gives an all round and fair tournament for everyone.

The Times will be 7pm to 10pm - Roughly but i can make some re-arrangments for people who cant make it

The Rules :

1. No hacking of any sort
2. No ghosting
3. No flaming
4. Best of 30 Rounds e.g First to 16 wins
5. General goods sportsmanship, no raging... bla bla
6. Some rules may be map specific but will be known to you at the time.

The rules aren't there to be broken. Most people entering will be a part of the TWK clan and we pride ourself in being laid back, and good natured.

Admin's will choose players allowed to enter based on whether they think the player is classed as a regular.

It will be over the period of 2/3 days depending on signups and will begin this saturday coming which is the 3rd/4th January respectively

thanks have a good new year everyone

O and btw what is flaming?

Eskimo practically summed it up, slagging/abusing someone for them doing well is practically flaming , 🤔
