

TWK Poker Evening

We've been talking about this for a long time now and I reckon it's about time we get organising this! The game will be Texas Hold'em and we'll probably hold this on PartyPoker if I can figure out how to get the private tables working.

So what do we want to do? We could host a sit and go tournament where we all pay a pound or something to enter and the top 2 or 3 get a share of the prize pool. Or we could do a straight forward cash game where we buy in for whatever we want.

So what dates and times suit you and what type of game would you like to play. What stakes would we like to play?

For me, it's a sit and go tournament with a buy-in of a pound or something on Boxing day. I'm already playing a tournament then anyway so I'll be online 😊

I guess im in a tournament 24/7 now:P Very often tho.

So 1 pound is fine for me. We could try to sign on some freeroles:)

yeah but then it wouldn't be TWK exclusive - if we want to play together we'll have to use a private table.

What about some Texas Cheat 'Em, it's pretty cheap on Steam and fun to play!
