

1v1 Tournament

Posted by Gazza - 14 Oct 2008 19:14

After a bit of discussion it looks like the 1on1 Cup Will go ahead.

This tournament is only available To TWK members, and trusted members who are part of the community. A.k.a no randomers, the main aim of this is just purely for fun but there may be a small prize available chances are there will be.

The Rules :

1. No hacking of any sort
2. No ghosting
3. No flaming
4. Best of 30 Rounds e.g First to 16 wins
5. General goods sportsmanship, no raging... bla bla
6. Some rules may be map specific but will be known to you at the time.

The rules aren't there to be broken. Most people entering will be a part of the TWK clan and you guys pride yourself in being laid back, and good natured.

Admin's will choose players allowed to enter based on whether they think the player is classed as a regular.

Sorry for the long post but basically we need to sort out some things aswell. We need to arrange when it shall be done.

It will be on a Friday/Saturday or a Saturday/Sunday this weekend or next if you can post a reply saying when you are able to play and whichever we can get the most replies in we will go for.

Looking forward to this 😊

For me, Friday 25 and Sat 26 or Sat 26 and Sun 27 is ideal. Start of the half-term holidays 😊 ok since no one really minds when the tournament will start we will start it on the Friday/Saturday on the 25th/26th Of october im sure thats the dates anyway. All i need now is sign ups for this we will use the old fashioned approach of pen and paper, Give me your name if you would like to attend either threw steamfriends or a reply to this post ill note down your name and we will begin.

Depending on how many sign ups will depend on the map choices, Chances are it will be the usual Aim_maps -

Awp_India

Aim_deagle

Aim_Xeagle.. Etc maps that people know, but that will be chosen on the night of the cup. We can say there will be a prize (Courtesy of DS) but i think we will keep it a suprise just for now.

Try and be around for 7pm GMT on the friday or slightly before it The first rounds will be held on the friday and the Semi's & finals will be held on the Saturday Source TV will be avilable for most of the games and hopefully a good bit of banter will be in order:)

Not much else for me to say other than enjoy it and gl hf
