

1v1 Tournament

Posted by Gazza - 14 Oct 2008 19:14

After a bit of discussion it looks like the 1on1 Cup Will go ahead.

This tournament is only available To TWK members, and trusted members who are part of the community. A.k.a no randomers, the main aim of this is just purely for fun but there may be a small prize available chances are there will be.

The Rules :

1. No hacking of any sort
2. No ghosting
3. No flaming
4. Best of 30 Rounds e.g First to 16 wins
5. General goods sportsmanship, no raging... bla bla
6. Some rules may be map specific but will be known to you at the time.

The rules aren't there to be broken. Most people entering will be a part of the TWK clan and you guys pride yourself in being laid back, and good natured.

Admin's will choose players allowed to enter based on whether they think the player is classed as a regular.

Sorry for the long post but basically we need to sort out some things aswell. We need to arrange when it shall be done.

It will be on a Friday/Saturday or a Saturday/Sunday this weekend or next if you can post a reply saying when you are able to play and whichever we can get the most replies in we will go for.
