How 'bout them cartoon ponies, huh?

If you don't know already, My Little Pony (hear me out): Friendship Is Magic (hear me out...) is a show that was started in 2010. It's 1st series has already finished and due to it's rising popularity a second one is already in the works. It has gathered a MASSIVE internet following, being on the fast track to becoming the most viewed meme on knowyourmeme.com. It's internet following is due to the fact that it is a series watchable by both kids and adults, with genuinley good humor. Also, the animation is the best I've seen on any cartoon I've seen. And I don't usually use the &quot;graphics&quot; argument.

If you haven't clicked away already, well done. You are either a brony already or open-minded. If you haven't watched an episode already, try either 1 & 2, 16 or 19. It is a little cheesy to start off with but as they realise their internet popularity they genuinley beecome more and more fun to watch. Just don't get to involed. Once I accidentally said 'what the hay' instead of 'what the hell'.

Have fun, bronies, and remember. If the great Zorninphel likes it, then you know its gotta be good. 🍌
