Those where some really nice songs, thx. I have been listening to dubstep for a long time but it hasnt been until the last couple of months that I have found some really good songs. Usualy I prefere remixes since I want a melody in it and the original song has that. The downside is that I tend to find few songs at the time since I cant rely on a specific artist. Exept for Ephixa wich I so far have liked all songs of. =)

My favs so far:

You may or may not remember, probably not but when i put the de_cartoon_chaos on the forums, it came along with a video showing the map. the video had the "Ephixia - Lost Woods" in the background 🤔

I like Ephixia, good job Callum show'd me it 🤔

I like the Zeldastep songs the most. But my fav Zeldastep is not by Ephixa, its this one:

But then again, when I think about it, it shifts depending on what mood im in. 🤔
