These people are my new favourite dubstep artists!

They have released a free EP called Loose Dirt

And here's a sneak peek of what they can do!

And there's 6 other songs in the EP, along with those above!

Their YouTube channel can be found here . Their channel also has all the songs on the EP

The first I heard of their tracks was in the Dubstep Guns video by CorridorDigital, and when I heard the music I thought "daaamn that's good!" and looked in the credits and found their channel and was blown away 🤩
