

Loki's Gate

Posted by Che ken - 30 Mar 2009 20:18

Recently, one of my brothers old friends have begun to create a film (not a big production or full length film, but one to show their talent for later use). This in turn got my brother a part as one of the zombies, and can be seen on his profile pic (look from John Bullock in the members, and no, that is not a mask)

the group can be found www.facebook.com/s.php?q=loki%27s+gate&a...=5460042828:12aq7z3y

A trailer for the film can be seen www.wridal.co.uk/LokisGateTeaser/:12aq7z3y

The films an hour long and - despite the trailer - it is unknown when it'll be released and where. Just thought it sounded cool and wanted to see what you thought of a possible film maker in the making (I might be in their next film 😊)

Aww tunes you should! the pics are awesome (will try to get some uploaded on here to show you) and you would have a chance at becoming a zombie in next film they make 😊

Slab yer talking shite! Worked fine for me first time on firefox, even on Internet Explorer! 😊
