

Who plays what?

Well we all know that Greenie plays bass and I'm learning guitar. Anyone else play musical instruments or even sing? Who's in a band? Who wants to learn an instrument? Discuss.

Used to play bass. Also did some eletro tunes, but then I stopped playing as I thought i didn't want some famous stars to be poor.

But still, good times.

I once played a violin, fave song was blackadder theme tune lol. My second school didn't teach it so I quit at that time 😊

I also sing when nobody hears me (or at least when I THINK nobody can hear me)

I play a bit of guitar - more rhythm than lead as my great, fat sausage fingers are more suited for owning y'all at CSS.
