

Rammstein Tour 2009

Posted by Tunes - 09 Nov 2009 00:24

Well, was browsing their site, as Vogon and I went to the concert, also cause was looking for the supporting band, which I found to be Combichrist (??), also there is some story around the 300 hundred photos I manage to take during the concert, Lisbon was the first Concert of this tour, once again Portugal takes the opening or closing off artists tours 🤔 and combichrist en.affenknecht.com/combichrist-will-support-rammstein/";

Will post the photos (some) as soon as I process them.

Awesome concert!
