First clip: Braindead action, thin story. Not something I will see in the theatre..

Second Clip: Cool Idea, my guess is it wont be centered on only her, seen clip with the guy in the end aswell. Def worth Theatre.

what are u talking about? The theatre is JUST for the special effects. Everything else is better at home. And cheaper its not only centered on her. Its from a comic book where "normal" ppl become super heroes, there are others: kick-ass, big daddy. But this trailer i liked most 🍌
