Just got home from seeing Rammstein with Combichrist as support. Rammstein just cant fail to deliver a great show, great in every aspect. Got to hear all my fav songs except for "Rammstein";.

Hope they come back soon 😊

(I know there exist a post from when the tour started but I just cant be asked to dig it up at this time 😊

Ah, yes. Another downside was that they had a bar in the back of the standing area, so I had to deal with a drunk idiot who kept bouncing into me during the concert, he could barley stand 😊
