

Panoramas

Posted by Tunes - 16 Nov 2010 17:47

Well folks

I'm into panoramas 📷

Regular photography is not giving me enough fun, sooooo....

This are just a few handheld starting tests I've published in panoramio

I think is the biggest bridge in europe, 13Kms

A view from the nations park, where expo 98 happend, the big, ufo looking like building, is the Atlantic Pavillion, remember the 300 photos from the Rammstein concert I've taken? It was in that pavillion.

And this is the view I had for 12 years, in my parents house, taken from my old room balcony, its the entrance for the city Amadora, where I used to live and where Vogon lives 📷

Leave a comment in the photos, good or bad.

I've bought a robotized head to make panos, still getting the hang of how it works, will post some photos in the meantime.
