- liked first one more
- how come lines are "breaking" (like there is no AA)
- "photography" looks like it was made in word 2000 style

Dont take it too hard, this were MY first impressions, its very important you get all opinions on this as they are felt, coz its for a logo.

keep iterating, you'll hit the sweet spot (Y)

It's sort of a home business at the moment but doesn't bring in much as I don't have a studio, but I get about 4-5 photoshoots a month which brings in a couple of hundred so im doing alright I guess. Nice array of camera's! I'm really really after the Canon EOS 7D or the 5D, sexy SLRs!

Yeah indeed, it's a hobby/business at the moment, I get some clients who want some shoots doing or a portfolio so that brings in some cash but without a studio it's hard to charge more than £500 for a portfolio 😊

I'll get there eventually, i'm hoping to buy the Canon EOS 50D or something similar eventually too, the honeycomb shaped sensors really make a different compared to normal ones.
