WoW. VERY nice. Feels also "smooth";

good job

PS: when clicking on twkgaming.com logo shouldt it redirect to homepage instead of forum?

i like default brownish most

next one is scheme 4

black one has too much contrast in it, imo

What I think is that scheme 3 needs a grey instead of white, we may change that...

A light grey instead of the white would make the theme less contrasted.

I love the default one, but I'm actually using them all depending on the day... LOL
